Notice to the Public.

I take this method of thanking my many friends for the liberal patronage they have extended me during the forty-six years I have conducted business in Alexandria. The business will in the future be conducted by my son, Thomas C. Hoy, who will devote his entire attention to it, and I trust he will receive the encouragement which has been accorded me. All outstanding bills will be paid him. A large and varied assortment of tinware, stoves and other housekeeping articles will be kept on hand, and all work in the tinning line will receive prompt attention.

Respectfully, THOMAS HOY.

APPEAL TURNED DOWN.

Messrs. S. H. Hansbrough, Robert M. Ward and N. T. Barton, a subcommittee of the general committee appointed at a massmeeting held by the business men of Winchester, to protest against the order of the Virginia Corporation Commission requiring through service by the Southern Railway over the lines of the Baltimore and Ohio, and the Southern, from Lexington, to Alexandria, via Strasburg; and also against the more recent action of the commission refusing application of the Baltimore and Ohio for an order permitting it to establish a through schedule of trains from Lexington, via Strasburg and Winchester as far as the state line, have submitted their case to the commission.

In their petition the representatives of Winchester say:

"We respectfully represent that the city and citizens of Winchester, Va., feel that in granting the privileges, or requiring this through service over both lines of those two railroads from Lexington, Va., to Alexandria, Va., our citizens are being discriminated against to their serious disadvantage.

"The effect of these orders, as they stand, is manifestly to force the travel and business of the upper valley in one favored direction, that is to say, to the town of Alexandria, or rather through the town of Alexandria and thence northward, and to divert it from its natural channel through the Valley of Virginia, via Strasburg and Winchester.

"Our citizens earnestly insist that they should be offered, at least, an equal opportunity to secure to this section of the State the advantages of this travel and business which, by the orders complained of, seems to be taken away from them and turned unnaturally into another channel.

"If the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company is willing or can lawfully be required to inaugurate a through schedule from Lexington via Strasburg, Winchester, to its northern connections, it would certainly seem that the right to do so should not be denied.

"Both the interests of the company and the interests of the community, for which it is the chief carrier, combine in asking a change of the orders complained of, in this respect.

"We think therefore, that to the order of January 28, 1908, this supplement should be made: 'That what is known as the passenger, baggage and express transfer at Strasburg Junction should be discontinued and a through schedule between Lexington, Va. and the Virginia and West Virginia State line, via Strasburg Junction (but not to interfere with the existing order requiring all trains of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company to run into Strasburg) and Winchester shall be inaugurated by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company as soon as practicable and not less than 60 days from the date of this order.'"

Judge Prentis, of the commission, has notified the committee that the complaint is not specific enough.

POLICEMAN KILLED.

Policeman George T. Smith, early last night, was shot to death in the heart of the business district by Capt. J. W. Jarratt, of Nurney, Va., section-master on the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. Smith had been on the police force for many years. He was 57 years old and leaves a family.

Jarratt had been arrested about midday for intoxication by Policemen Smith and Dennis. He was shortly afterward admitted to bail by Mayor Norfleet. According to the police Jarratt made threats against Smith's life. He borrowed a pistol and then hunted for Smith, it is alleged. As Smith returned to his beat from supper Jarratt opened fire at close range before Smith could draw his pistol.

Jarratt was hurried to the police station. Within a few minutes a crowd of 2,000 persons gathered, and there were threats of lynching.

Jarratt has been with the Atlantic Coast Line for many years and bore a good reputation. He is an Odd Fellow, as was his victim.

GIRL PLUNGES TO DEATH.

Mrs. Stella Parker, a nineteen-year-old girl known to the public as Mademoiselle Novi, was fatally injured late Friday afternoon while "looping the gap" in an automobile near Pittsburg, where she had been the attraction for two weeks.

Mademoiselle Novi was advertised to turn three complete somersaults in her car after running down a steep incline. Friday afternoon one of the rear wheels of the car slipped from the track. When the car struck the gap it lurched over on its side, turned three and a half somersaults, and then came down with a crash. The girl's head struck an iron bar to which she was holding, crushing her skull.

A panic followed the accident, many women fainting. Her manager said he knew nothing about her, but her name and address were found on an identification card around her neck, probably placed there in case of such an accident as happened Friday. Her home is at No. 491 Quincy street, Dorchester, Mass.

STRANGE LIGHTS IN THE SKY.

Dispatches from Berlin say that remarkable lights were observed in the northern heavens on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, the bright diffused white and yellow illumination continuing throughout the night, until it disappeared at dawn. Director Archenhold, of the Treptow observatory, says that because of the phenomena's particular brilliancy he thinks it may be connected with important changes on the sun's surface, causing electrical discharges.

Director Archenhold, however, mentions a somewhat similar phenomena in 1883, which was directly traceable to an outbreak of the Krakatoa volcano, in the Straits of Sunda. Reports from Copenhagen and Koenigsberg tell of the same great lights being visible in those cities, and it is presumed that they were visible throughout northern Europe.

TRADESMEN'S THREAT.

Butchers, bakers and other tradesmen who minister to the wants of the 400 at Newport, R. I., are tired of waiting for their bills and have formed an association to attach some of the million-dollar homes of their rich debtors unless settlement is made. Thirty days is to be allowed the rich cottagers, and failing payment by that time sheriff's attachments will be put on properties, as was done a few days ago on the estate of a lady, a society leader, who forgot her butcher too long. Rumors of the action to be taken have been rife for some days and have been sufficient to force settlement of some long standing accounts. In some cases those remittances have been made by cable.

VAE VICTIS.

All who love liberty and their country view with alarm the prospect of the continuance of the republican party in power. Under the administration of President Roosevelt more has been done in depriving the states of the union of their constitutional rights and sovereign powers then was accomplished by the civil war. Every patriot feels that those who desire to extend the powers of the federal government beyond its constitutional limits should be denied office and deprived of power. Ex-Secretary Taft said in his speech at Staunton, Va., on July 3rd, that he hoped to break the solid south, "and to do so, would be a blessing to the country." He is bold in thus stating the war to be waged by the republican party against the civilization of the south. It is the same character of warfare that was carried on in 1861-65; then it was with bullet and bayonet, accompanied by carnage, pillage, burning houses, anguish and destruction of property; now it is to be by the ballot, by a union of a part of the whites with all of the blacks, to be followed inevitably by a distribution of offices amongst the victors, among whom we may see negro policemen, councilmen, schoolteachers, magistrates and judges, and so on through every department of state and municipal government. Those who remember the time when the re-adjuster party was in control of Virginia, and the excesses it was inclined to perpetrate, turn with disgust and loathing from a return to such a condition of affairs. The republican party is essentially one of fraud and corruption, and its policies and practices subversive of the rights and destructive of the interests of the people. Its perpetuation in power means the destruction and death of free government. No greater or more cruel dictator ever lived than the present speaker of the House of Representatives. With a hide as thick as the armor of a modern battleship, dead to all sense of shame, insensible to criticism, he originates and pilots parliamentary tactics in such a way that members of the minority party are robbed of the right to participate in legislation or to protect the interests of their constituents. In the coming presidential election an opportunity is offered to correct these abuses, and to ward off threatened ills.

With Mr. Taft as president and a republican Congress no one can see the limit of federal aggression. He is pledged to Roosevelt's policies, and they mean injury perhaps destruction, to every substantial and conservative interest. Mr. Roosevelt attacks railroads and other and allied capitalized companies. They continue to work and operate, but as a result of his crusade against them for political purposes, hundreds and thousands of innocent holders of corporate securities have sustained losses, in some cases irretrievable, and hundreds of thousand of wage earners are idle, and see loved ones hungry and hollow-eyed, without ability to supply their wants or relieve their necessities. Can anyone say that conditions would be any better under Mr. Taft as president? He is pledged to go on as Roosevelt started, and although there is a lull in the proceedings now, yet if he is elected, he will gather up the reins and drive at as fast and furious a gait as Roosevelt did, perhaps more effectively in destroying values and causing misery and want, for he is a man of much greater ability than the present president. Those democrats who regard Mr. Bryan as a patriot and statesman will, if he is nominated, cheerfully vote for and support him.

Those other democrats, who do not approve of all of Mr. Bryan's policies, should never forget that we are charged with the duty of driving from the control of the government a party intoxicated with fraud and corruption, and this accomplished, we will have done much for our country, race and civilization. And again that, with a democratic president and republican senate, there would be little likelihood of vicious, economic legislation. Many would regard this "balance of power" as a blessing in the present critical period of our national affairs. Evidences accumulate on all hands of Mr. Bryan's nomination and election.

Of one thing we feel sure, that Virginia, always loyal, always true, the very rampart of constitutional and individual freedom, will not desert or abandon the principles for which she has struggled so hard and suffered so much and so long.

THE bureau of navigation announced on Wednesday that the fiscal year ended June 30, was the record year in American shipbuilding, and that the centre of the industry is on the Great Lakes. In the year 1,506 vessels of 588,627 gross tons were built and numbered in the United States, seventy-five steel steamers, of 304,379 gross tons, being built on the Great Lakes. The largest annual output heretofore was in 1855, when 2,024 vessels, of 583,450 tons, were built. This year steel vessels numbered 142, of 417,167 gross tons, compared with 360,665 tons last year. These two are the years of the largest steel construction in the United States. These vessels were built for domestic transportation, and if the duty on the stuff which enters into ship building were lowered, many more vessels including those for foreign transportation would be built in this country. Still the ship subsidy men claim that it does not pay to build ships here unless big subsidies are paid to the builders.

VICE PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS, speaking at Anderson, Ind., on the Fourth, made a plea for a high moral code in politics. Yet Mr. Fairbanks less than six weeks ago took advantage of a blind U. S. senator and played a political trick in the Senate which made the old timers gasp.

DISPATCHES sent out from New York states that the Fourth of July celebration in that city was of the old time variety, the leading address being made by a descendant of George Washington. And yet history states that Washington had no children.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 6.

Coincidental with the arrival of Senator Hemenway, of Indiana, in town today on his way to Hot Springs, Va., to confer with "Private Citizen" Taft, sprang up a boom for Hemenway for treasurer of the national committee. Hemenway said he did not believe that Taft wanted him to act in that capacity and added that he was not a candidate for the job. It is no secret that he would be glad to be chosen. As to his summons to Hot Springs, the senator said he had intimation as to the reasons therefor, but presumed that it was for a "harmony" talk.

At the postmaster general's office today it was denied that Mr. Meyer had suffered a critical illness from ptomaine poison and had been forced to cancel his Fourth of July engagement as guest of the Oastis Club, of Richmond. Dr. Holmes, his private secretary, today declared that the story printed in several morning papers to the effect that the postmaster general's illness was so serious that his family had been summoned to his bedside from their summer home in Massachusetts, was a gross fabrication. "Friday, Mr. Meyer suffered a slight attack of indigestion, brought on by the heat," he said. Mr. Meyer is out of town today, and considerable mystery attaches to his whereabouts.

A weather bulletin issued today states that there will be practically no relief from the present high temperature in the Atlantic States for at least two more days.

Fire about six o'clock this morning in Springman's Court damaged nine buildings, including two dwellings, several stables and sheds. The damage amounted to $3,000. James Rock, a fireman, was severely burned about his left arm and was treated at the Emergency Hospital.

John F. Shaw, of the jewelry firm of Shaw and Brown, committed suicide in a room at 702 Tenth street yesterday by inhaling illuminating gas. He had been despondent for some time.

DEATH OF JOEL C. HARRIS.

Joel Chandler Harris, familiarly known as "Uncle Remus" and an author of note, died at his home in a suburb of Atlanta, Ga., Friday night, from cirrhosis of the liver, aged 60 years

Joel Chandler Harris was born in Eatonton, Ga., December, 9, 1848. He was married in 1873 to Miss Essie La-Rose, of Canada, and in 1876 moved to Atlanta, joining the staff of the Atlanta Constitution. It was while he was connected with the Constitution, that his tales, "Stories by Uncle Remus," first attracted attention. In 1900 Mr. Harris retired from active journalism and until last year, when he became editor and proprietor of Uncle Remus Magazine, spent most of his time at his suburban home. He is survived by a widow, two daughters and four sons.

During a heavy thunderstorm, the body of Mr. Harris was laid to rest in the West View Cemetery on the outskirts of Savannah, late yesterday.

Effects of the Heat Wave.

New York July 6.—With two dead from heat and the thermomter near the ninety mark, New York today is facing one of the most sizzling experiences of a torrid summer. Yesterday there was 88 degrees of heat and 85 at 9 o'clock this morning promised that today would exceed it in suffering. On the east side every breathing space is crowded, and at the recreation piers and the free baths the throngs of gasping little ones stand shoulder to shoulder.

Boston, July 6.—The number of fatal prostrations during the present unprecedented hot wave in Boston has reached ten. During the past seventeen days there have been 70 prostrations. This was the hottest day of the warm spell. At noon the temperature registered 90 degrees.

Slaughter in Persia Continues.

St. Petersburg, July 6.—The slaughter by the shah's Cossacks in Tabriz continues. Notwithstanding that the revolutionists have surrendered, the Cossacks are hunting down isolated bands of the reformers and putting them to death. There are still many such bands of revolutionists throughout the city. Realizing that a white flag of surrender brings no immunity hundreds are fleeing from the city. The shah's order is that the last vestige of the reform spirit be subdued if half of the population has to be killed in the process.

Uprising in Paraguay.

Buenos Ayres, July 6.—Only the most meager dispatches reached here today regarding the uprising in Paraguay and these were of a contradictory nature. Today's messages confirm the earlier reports that the revolutionists have established a new government in Asuncion, the capital, and that the regime of President Benigno Ferrera has been completely overthrown.

The De Sagan-Gould Wedding.

London, July 6.—Mme. Anna Gould and Prince Helie de Sagan set at rest all doubts as to their coming marriage today by announcing to the registry office that the marriage would take place within a week.

News of the Day.

Senator Crane has refused the chairmanship of the republican national committee, leaving a clear field for Hitchcock.

Receivers have been appointed in Trenton, N. J., for the United Box Board and Paper Company, a $30,000,000 concern.

President Roosevelt has given permission to fire a salute of guns at the Monument grounds in Washington in honor of the nominees at Denver.

Of the nine balloons which started from Chicago on Saturday eight have landed safely, while the ninth, the Illinois, is supposed to be still in the air.

Announcement of the withdrawal of Senor Arias as a candidate for the presidency in Panama has cleared the political atmosphere and no trouble is now expected.

Judge Parker was among the arrivals in Denver, on Saturday. He has toned down the resolutions of eulogy to Cleveland so that they will not give offense to the Bryan people.

Canada is making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the Prince of Wales and his suite during the six days of their visit, July 22-28, to attend the Quebec centenary celebration.

The revolutionists in Paraguay have overthrown the government, and several of the ministers of State have taken refuge in the Argentine legation. Some 500 persons were killed and wounded in the fighting at Asuncion.

Mr. James E. Hooper, of Baltimore, president of the William E. Hooper & Sons Company, manufacturers of cotton duck, and once president of the Mount Vernon-Woodberry Cotton Duck Corporation, died yesterday.

Frederick Gies was arrested in Philadelphia last night as a suspect in connection with the murder of Dr. William H. Wilson, who died on June 26, after drinking a bottle of poisoned ale, which had been sent to him from a local express office.

Over 400 buildings, including the court house, prison and the arsenal at Port-au-Prince, Haiti, were destroyed by fire yesterday evening. All of the prisoners, who included a number of women, were taken to other quarters before the building took fire.

Rear Admiral Thomas, who succeeded Admiral Evans as commander of the big battleship fleet from the Atlantic, dropped dead in a hotel in Delmonte, Cal., Saturday night. Admiral Thomas, just retired, had been ill for some time. Apoplexy caused his death.

Commander Peary's steamship, the Roosevelt, built by the Peary Arctic Club, sails from New York today, and after a stop the following day at Oyster Bay, where it is expected President Roosevelt will visit the ship, will proceed to Sydney, where Peary, having gone by rail, will join her.

Candidates for president and vice-president of the United States were nominated and a platform was adopted by the national convention of the socialist labor party in New York yesterday. The ticket named is as follows: For president—Martin B. Preston, of Nevada. For vice-president—Donald Munro, of Virginia.

In the federal court at Nashville, Tenn., in the case of the United States against the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company and others. Judge John E. McCall quashed the indictment, which charged some fifty-odd corporations and individuals with constituting a fertilizer trust in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

More than 100,000 tons of cement, rock and limestone were loosened by a tremendous blast set off Friday evening in the quarry of the Bath Portland Cement Company, at Bath Pa. It was like an upheaval of nature, the shock being felt in Allentown and the surrounding territory. It was the heaviest land blast ever set off in America.

The Republic Iron and Steel Company, which until June 30 had been operating its plants with union workmen, proposes to employ none but non-union men hereafter for the purpose of saving $500,000 a year, which the officers allege that dealing with the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel, Sheet and Tin Workers costs them.

Lieutenant Berry, of the New York police, arrived at New Orleans yesterday from Puerto Cortez, Spanish Honduras, with his prisoners, Albert W. Bailey, Charles H. Myers and Captain Albert Oxley, Francis G. Bailey, brother of Albert Bailey, escaped from the steamer before she sailed. The Baileys are charged with conspiracy to use the the United States mails to defraud.

Herman Ridder, of New York, called on Mr. Bryan at Lincoln, Neb., on Friday, and asked him to withdraw from the presidential race. In reply Mr. Bryan said: "Mr. Ridder, I will be elected. Mr. Ridder, I will be elected without New York State. I'd just as leave be elected with New York State, but after everything possible has been done to make the situation democratically harmonious, if New York State does not want me, that doesn't say the country doesn't."

The defeat of Joe Gans by Battling Nelson in the 45-round fight for the lightweight championship of the world and a purse of $25,000, at San Francisco Saturday afternoon in the seventeenth round, was so decisive that there was no question about it. Gans failed to rise before the count of 10, and the referee naturally gave the fight to Nelson. Gans was practically out as he had been for four rounds, being knocked down repeatedly and unable to protect himself, despite his great skill in blocking.

Injuries to 25 persons as a result of celebrations of the Fourth of July were reported to the police of Washington on Saturday. Reports from other cities throughout the country are to the effect that many persons were injured by the explosion of fire works, etc.

The threatened clash between Russia and Turkey is at hand. In haste Russia is mobolizing an army in the Caucasus to hurl it against the Turkish troops, which are plundering the border towns and killing the inhabitants.

Three Drown.

Medford, Mass., July 6.—Disregarding the cries for aid of his wife and child, John J. Burns saved his mother and a little guest when their canoe upset in Mystic river here. Mrs. Burns, the younger, and her baby boy will be buried today and the father is heart-broken. Burns, his mother, wife and child and two little girls, Reta Cooper and Sadie Bowen, were paddling to a picnic when a vessel's hawser upset the canoe. Burns could not save all, so he aided his 65 year old mother and the Bowen girl to safety. His wife and son and the other girl went down before his eyes.

Virginia News.

Justice Crutchfield, Richmond's famous "Justice John," celebrated the twentieth year of his administration on the Police Court bench on Friday last.

Rev. George H. Wiley, superintendent of the Ex-Prisoners' Aid Society of Virginia, has resigned to devote his entire time to evangelistic work.

Jacob V. Grinstead, member of the Lexington bar, former grand master of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of Virginia, died Friday. He was born near Abingdon, about 60 years ago, and as a mere boy entered the Confederate army.

Mrs. Martha Randolph Moore, daughter of the late Capt. Alexander Howison, of Prince William county, celebrated her ninety-third birthday Saturday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Craig, at West Arlington, near Baltimore.

The engineers for the proposed electric railway from Great Falls through Loudoun to the Valley, reached Middleburg some days ago and stated that they were much pleased with the route. They are of the opinion that the road can be constructed at a less cost than at first estimated.

VIRGINIANS IN LONDON.

Virginia people in London are having a delightful time, Rev. Robert A. Gibson, D. D., bishop of Virginia, and the Misses Gibson are guests of the bishop of London at Fullham Palace. Archdeacon Neve of Virginia, who is in attendance upon the pan-Anglican congress, is visiting relatives in the county of Kent during a part of this time. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan of Richmond and Mr. Joseph Wilmer of Orange county, form a pleasant party at the St. Erniens. Mr. Peter Mayo and family are at Queen Anne Mansion. Rev. Thomas C. Darst, rector os St. Mark's Richmond, is chaplain to Bishop Gibson, and is visiting the principal of St John's College, London. Rev. and Mrs. Wythe Legh Kinsolving of Richmond, Miss Sally Stuart of Alexandria, president of the Virginia branch of the women's auxiliary to the Episcopal Church; Rev. W. A. R. Goodwin of Bruton Church, Williamsburg; Rev. J. M. Owens of Norfolk, Rev. W. K. Pendleton of Wytheville, Mrs. George W. Bagley, Miss Ellen Bagley, Mrs Arthur J. Lefroy of Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. John Letcher of Norfolk are among other Virginians now enjoying the social life of London and attending the conference. The bishop of London gave a garden party at Fulham Palace, which the Virginia representatives considered most delightful. They also greatly enjoyed a garden party a Knebworth Castle, of which Lord Strathcona was the host. Knebworth Castle is the ancestral Lytton home, and in its charming old-world garden many of the famous books of Lord Bulwer-Lytton were written. The Virginian and Richmond visitors in England will be coming home in August or by the first of September.

WINGATE GETS 18 YEARS.

The jury in the case of Lewis Wingate, charged with the murder of his 10-year-old son, Ray Wingate, which engaged a special term of the Circuit Court of Grayson county, last week, returned a verdict of murder in the second degree and fixed the punishment at 18 years in the penitentiary.

The testimony at the trial showed that when the boy's body was exhumed it was found to be covered with bruises from head to foot; that the stomach contained nothing but a small amount of bloody-looking water, and the intestines a bit of green matter that appeared to be digested grass. All of the teeth but one had been pulled from the mouth and it is alleged that they were extracted by the father, who used a pair of blacksmith tongs to get them out. It was also shown that the boy ate scraps of garbage from a slop bucket and raw grains or corn from a corn crib.

Women witnesses testified that they had seen the lad chained to a staircase in the Wingate home, and also chained in a stall in the barn. It was testified that the boy's mother was afraid to remove him from the stall in the stable to the house to give him food, which he begged for, because she was afraid of the father. Wingate is a man of considerable means.

Alienists examined Wingate to determine the state of his mind and pronounced him sane. It was thought the plea would be insanity, but the report of the doctors exploded this.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Delegates to the democratic national convention which meets tomorrow are pouring into Denver from all directions, railroad facilities being inadequate to bring them promptly to the city.

Out of the confusion caused by conflicting vice presidential candidates and groundless reports two facts stand out.

First—The fact that nothing will be in the platform objectionable to William J. Bryan has been assured by agreement on a programme which provides for the draft of that document by a subcommittee of 17 representing the strongest Bryan States.

Second—Mr. Bryan has tentatively agreed to a modification of the anti-injunction plank, by which the declaration in favor of trial by jury for violations of injunctions committed outside the presence of the court shall be erased.

The Pennsylvania delegates on their way to Denver stopped at Lincoln, Neb., on Saturday and were addressed by Mr. Bryan.

In the course of his address Mr. Bryan said he had notified Col. J. M. Guffy that "In my opinion your re-election would be unfortunate and your presence on the national committee embarrassing to me and my friends."

In Denver yesterday Col. J. M. Guffy, replying to Bryon's attack on him, denounces Mr. Bryan as an arrogant boss and ingrate.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Denver Convention.

Denver, July 6.—The center of activity of the democratic party is the Brown Palace Hotel. On the eve of the assembling of the convention the national committee is at work making up the temporary roll of delegates, while bands are playing outside and the delegates are cheering each other as they march about the streets.

Some of the contests are being hard fought and for the first time since the preliminary work was begun there are evidences of a bitter feeling that may yet crop out on the floor of the convention.

The grounds of contest range from "irregularity" to allegations of fraud. The chief interest is in the Idaho and the New York contests. In the former ex-United States Senator Dubois was waging the hardest battle of his political career. The real issue is Mormonism.

The New York contests presented the plain problem of one boss trying to get rid of another boss. Patrick H. McCarren fought hard, but he indicated that he had little hope of winning out. He recited the story of the primaries and stated that he and his followers had prevailed over Bird S. Coler and the latter's men by a vote of fully six to one. He declared that Charlie Murphy, the leader of Tammany Hall, in order to extend the influence of his organization across the bridge from Manhattan to Brooklyn, had conspired to throw out the regularly elected delegates in Kings county and to replace them with delegates willing to carry out Murphy's bidding.

Denver, July 6.—Gov. Johnson's boom for the presidency has collapsed. It was admitted today in his own camp that there is no hope of his nomination and that his supporters disguise the fact, as a matter of principle. Formal assurances that Johnson will be the nominee are still being issued from his headquarters, but this for a purpose. The Johnson folks are laying plans for 1912.

Denver, July 6.—Tammany will formally announce its surrender to Bryan this afternoon when at the State caucus a resolution will be adopted committing the State delegation, which is controlled by leader C. F. Murphy, to vote for the Nebraskan on the first ballot.

The slate was completed at a conference of the leaders this morning. It is as follows:

National Committeeman—Norman E. Mack.

Member committee on resolutions—Alton B. Parker.

Member of committee on credentials—Daniel F. Cohalen.

Denver, July 6.—A specially called meeting of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor took place today at the Denver labor headquarters. The meeting was called by President Samuel Gompers. The meeting was to consider what kind of a plank should be presented to the resolutions committee of the democratic national committee.

Gompers says the overtures made at Chicago, and which were not regarded there, will be repeated at Denver.

Denver, July 6.—The sub-committee in the New York contest decided in favor of seating the Murphy delegates without going into the merits of the case.

The Pennsylvania delegation today after a bolt by the Kerr contestants, elected Colonel James M. Guffey as chairman of the delegation and member of the national committee. Former Congressman Kerr himself led the bolters. As they walked out they were greeted with hisses and jeers by the Guffeyites.

One of the latter denounced them as cowards and a Kerr man retorted, "Come down into the alley and see whether we are."

It is reported today that Bryan has modified his original draft on the anti-injunction plank and that, in its present form, it proposes that no injunction shall be issued in labor disputes without five days notice except in cases where life and property are endangered. The Gompers's proposition requires the five days notices and hearing in all cases without exception.

Closing in on Rebels.

Mexico City, Mexico, July 6.—A force of 2,000 rurales and federal troops is closing in on a band of insurrectionists, reported to number nearly 1,000 well armed, entrenched in the fastnesses of the Santa Rosa mountains, according to last advices received here. It is expected that before night a decisive battle will be fought which will probable settle all talk of a Mexican uprising.

Alarming reports as the renewed activity of Yaqui and Laya Indians due, it is believed, to the agitation of insurgent reached here today. The revolutionary leaders issued a proclamation promising to restore their extensive lands to the Indians. This promise seems to have stirred the savages. Additional troops are being dispatched to keep the Indians under control.

Baby Kidnapped.

New York, July 6.—Her baby sister kidnapped, she says, by a strange man and woman, Annie Poster, aged ten, of Newark, and Rosie Reynolds, same age, also of Newark, were found today by the police at Coney Island and are being held by them while a hunt for the kidnappers is on. "We were out walking with baby on Market street in Newark," said the Poster child, "when a man and woman asked us if we wanted to go to Coney Island. We said 'yes,' and the woman took the baby in her arms and went on the boat. When we got to Coney Island the woman took the baby and said she was going for a walk. The man stayed with us a little while, but neither came back. We waited and waited and waited and then we went to sleep on the sand.'

Killed in a Duel.

St. Petersburg, July 6—As a result of the duel by which Count Sumarkoff, son of Prince Yousoupoff, who was shot and killed by Count Manteuffel, prominent Russians, are today demanding a change in the duelling code to permit satisfaction without the present probability of killing an antagonist. The duel resulted from Sumarskoff's attentions to Countess Manteuffel, the beautiful daughter of Count Hayden, the Czar's naval aide. Maneuffel fled when these scandals were first published. Six weeks ago he fought a duel with Sumarakoff, in which he was severely wounded. When he recovered he again demanded satisfaction and yesterday's tragic encounter was the result.

The Market.

Georgetown D. C., July 6.—Wheat 75-85.

A Terrible Shock.

Stamford, Conn., July 6.—His skin and clothes burned by eleven thousand volts of electricity, James Hayes, 23 years old, is alive here after having endured a shock thrice the strength of that used in the death chair at Sing Sing. Hayes climbed to the top of an electric locomotive in the New Haven yards and grasped the live wire. His nails were peeled off and holes burned in his back. He was delirious for some time after the shock, but at the hospital physicans say he probably will recover.

Fire in Port au Prince.

Port au Prince, July 6.—Searching parties today began going through the disastrous fire which wiped a large part of Port au Prince from the map Sunday afternoon in the hope of finding the bodies of a number of persons who are reported missing. Many of those who were made homeless by the flames are now camped outside the city. They are in destitute circumstances and the city will have to make provision for them for the present.

Mae C. Wood Arraigned.

New York, July 6.—Mae C. Wood was arraigned today before Justice Foster in the court of general sessions on charges of forgery and perjury, growing out of her recent suit against Senator Platt. Charles L. Hubbell appeared for Miss Wood. He entered a plea of "not guilty" to the perjury charge and a demurrer to that of forgery. Next Wednesday was set as the day for argument on the demurrer and $5,000 bail was continued.

Bishop Potter Improving.

Cooperstown, N. Y., July 6.—Bishop Potter passed a comfortable night and inprovment continues and his recovery is hoped for.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 6.—In the first hour prices in nearly everything traded in made gains to some extent.

Increased strength and activity developed as the forenoon progressed and at midday prices of many stocks showed gains of about two points over Friday's closing.

Convict Candidate.

New York, July 6.—Martin R. Preston, of Nevada, convicted murderer, who is serving a 22-year term, is the presidential nominee for whom today the socialist labor party is being urged to vote. Preston was nominated at the national convention of the party here yesterday after a speech of laudation by Daniel DeLeon and the delegates cheered for him heartily. Preston killed a restaurateur in a labor dispute. Donald Munro, of Newport News, Va., was nominated for the vice presidency.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100,00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March, 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

THOMAS BURROUGHS, P. M.

DIED.

Friday morning, at 8 o'clock, at her residence, 711 Wythe street, after a long illness of consumption, Mrs. J. T. PETTY, aged 74 years.

Farewell dear mother, sweet thy rest,
Weary with years and worn with pain;
Farewell, till in some happy place
We shall behold thy face again.
'Tis ours to miss thee, all our years,
And tender memories of thee keep,
Thine in the Lord to rest, for so,
He giveth his beloved sleep.

By HER DAUGHTER, MRS. MARY MAYHUGH

Funeral took place from the residence this (Monday) morning.

Boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy which cured him and believe that it saved his life.—William H. Strolling. Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt that this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with castor oil according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by W. F. CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

G. E. Small, twenty-four years old, of Greenbrier White Sulphur, W. Va., was arrested yesterday morning charged with forgery. It is alleged that Small made an effort to cash a check at B. Abramson's clothing store, corner of King and Washington streets. It is also charged that he succeeded in passing a bogus checck for $16.50, signed "S. B. Devaughn," drawn on the First National Bank, at the Tontine Hotel. Small made some purchases at the bar, after which he presented the check. On the bottom was marked "for labor." He suggested to the saloonkeeper that he be given only $6, and he added that he would call for the residue. He secured the $6 and left. When arrested Small had another check for a similar amount in his pocket drawn on the same bank marked "S. D. Devaughn." Mr. Devaughn is a well-known contractor. He says he never had any business with the prisoner. It was subsequently learned that Small made efforts to pass the check at several business houses. He claims that he purchased the two checks from a strange man. Small, after being locked up, pretended he was contemplating suicide, but he made no attempt at self-destruction. Small was brought before the Police Court this morning when the case was continued until Wednesday morning. He said his name was W. W. Eans.

DEATH OF EDWARD QUINN.

Mr. Edward Quinn, who had been in failing health for some time, died suddenly at Atlantic City last Saturday afternoon. The deceased had been a sufferer from Bright's disease, and about ten days ago left here for Atlantic City. The remains reached this city yesterday and the funeral will take place from St. Mary's Church tomorrow morning. Mr. Quinn was in the 69th year of his age. He was born in county Galway, Ireland, and came to America in 1859. Forty-six years ago he located in Alexandria and for many years was engaged in the grocery business. He was senior member of the firm of Edward Quinn & Sons, northeast corner of Oronoco and St. Asaph streets. He was a quiet and good citizen and was esteemed by all who knew him. He was a member of the Catholic Benevolent Legion. Mr. Quinn is survived by seven children—James P., Edward J., Francis T., William E., Martin H. Quinn and Mrs. Jefferson D. Aitcheson of this city and Edward J. Quinn of Washington.

The six sons of the deceased will act as pallbearers.

FIRES.

The two-story frame dwelling house owned and occupied by Mr. Dennis J. Dunn, south of Spring Park, at the head of Prince street, was destroyed by fire about 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning. A defective flue is supposed to have been responsible for the blaze. The house was partially insured. The building burned rapidly, and the occupants were force to flee from it as soon as possible. The Alexandria fire department responded to the alarm and succeeded in confining the fire and saving adjoining property.

What was known as "The Red Barn," at Belmont, on the electric railway, a short distance south of this city, was totally destroyed by fire last Saturday night. Several calves, about 150 chickens and some farm implements were lost. The origin of the fire is unknown. The barn belonged to Mr. A. T. Hopkins. The loss will reach $1,000.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

The following officers of the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of the Methodist Pretestant Church have been installed: F. W. Ebhardt, president; R. H. Bartlett, first vice president; Miss Grace Chambers-Smith, second vice president; R. E. L. Tyler, recording secretary; Miss Lillian Henderson, treasurer; C. E. Kell, corresponding secretary; Miss Ola Lyles, pianist; and Miss Addie Lindsey, assistant pianist.

The following elected officers of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, of Odd Fellows were installed at the meeting on last Friday night. Past grand, Norman Williamson; noble grand, W. F. Risdon; vice grand, W. H. Yates; recording secretary, W. A. Conway; financial secretary, W. E. Latham; treasurer, L. M. Davis.

RESIDENCE ROBBED.

The residence of Dr. S. B. Moore, 811 Prince street, was entered by a sneak thief between 6 and 7 o'clock last Saturday evening while the family were at supper and robbed of 4 rings, 2 suits of clothes belonging to the doctor, 2 pistols, a pair of tan shoes, a pair of patent leather shoes, and a pair of lady's slippers. Several persons in the neighborhood as well as one of the occupants of the house saw the thief when he left, but they were unaware of the fact that he had been on a pillaging expedition. It is said that the man left the city via north Patrick street, and the police of Washington were asked to look out for him.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

The Fourth of July passed off in this city without any serious accident having been reported. Several children received slight burns from the careless handling of fireworks. About the average number of explosions were heard in the city. The fusilade which began in the middle of last week was kept up until yesterday. As is usual on this holiday, a large number of people left the city some on excursion steamers and others in private parties. Most of the stores were closed in the afternoon, and the day was observed generally as a holiday, and, comparatively speaking, was quiet throughout.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A young man, charged with assault was dismissed.

George Davis and John E. Weaver, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and cruelty to a cat, forfeited $10 each by failure to appear.

Jesse King and Ernest Chase, both colored, charged with fast driving and injuring a vehicle, were dismissed upon promising to pay for its damage.

Gertie Cole, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5. George Stanton, colored, charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

Josephine Lee, Mary James and Madison Jackson, all colored, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

G. E. Small, alias W. W. Evans, charged with forgery, had his case continued.

George Elmore, charged with destroying property, was fined $10.

Hannah Beal, colored, charged with abusive language, was fined $5.

"THE HAPPINESS CHURCH."

Rev. Theodore Valiant, an evangelist of "The Happiness Church," delivered a discourse at Luna Park last night. Behind the movement are a number of members of the Personal Liberty League. One of the principles of the new religion is the overthrow of all Sunday restrictions in the District of Columbia and to permit the people to engage in sports and other recreations on that day. Samuel H. Reeder, of Alexandria, and Martin Henry, of the Personal Liberty League, were present and assisted in the services. Among other things Rev. Mr. Valiant said:

"Music, merriment and smiling faces will be important elements of the religion of the future. There will be the dancing women, the cymbal players, the singers, and the games, just as there were in the days of Moses and Solomon. The old hell of the old religion, with its flaming fires, its dancing imps in leather hides, its catacombs of dead hopes, and its fumes of sulphur, is a thing of the past, it was adroitly employed to frighten people into the church. Blue laws and fanaticism will find no places in the religion of the future."

DEDICATION.

Washington had a patriotic display on the Fourth in connection with the opening of the new Municipal building. The ceremonies were impressing and a number of addresses were made. Among those who spoke were Mayor McCauly, of Richmond, and Mayor Paff, of Alexandria. The latter emphasized the close relations existing between this city and Washington. "This is a magnificent occasion to manifest our patriotism," said he. He laid stress upon the fact that the feelings of sectionalism are so far buried that men from the south and from the north could happily join in celebrating the completion of the magnificent new home for the District government.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Emma H. Denty vs. Harry B. Denty; chancery; final decree for divorce upon grounds of desertion.

The will of Mrs. Mary Virginia Travers was admitted to probate and her daughter, Mabel A. Travere, qualified as executrix. The deceased left her estate to her daughter, Mabel A. Travers, except $200 in cash which is left in trust for the benefit of her grandson, Bernard T. Gallingher, to be paid him when he arrives at the age of twenty-one years.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

John N. McPherson vs. Catherine McPherson, in chancery; final decree for divorce upon the grounds of desertion.

The suit of Luther Carter vs. Virginia R. Simpson, dispute as to commissions on account of sale of property, was continued until the September term.

SUSPECTED OF THEFT.

Joseph Horseman was arrested Saturday on suspicion of entering Mr. M. R. O'Sullivan's store, corner of Franklin and Patrick streets, about two weeks ago and carrying off many articles. Horseman was brought defore the Police Court this morning, and in the absence of material witnesses the case was continued until Wednesday morning.

CARDINALS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP.

In a double-header for the championship the Cardinals won both games from the Virginia Stars on Colross, Saturday, the score of the first game being 9 to 5 and the second 6 to 5. The Cardinals now hold the undisputed 15 and 18 year old championship of Alexandria and vicinity.

U. S. COURT.

[Judge Edmund Waddill, presiding.]

The July term of the court opened today. All the court officers are present and a number of cases are to be disposed of.

The grand jury, with Russell Wallace, of Petersburg, as foreman, was sworn and retired to their room.

The grand jury returned indictments against

Richard Stocks, W. C. Fry, Samuel Thornton, Richard Simmons, Rufus H. Dade, Charles Shout, Thomas Dove, B. F. Campbell and Washington Barnes for violating the internal reuenue laws in retailing liquor without the proper license.

Alexandria National Bank vs. W. C. Bates & Co.; order dismissing rule against Bates & Co. for contempt and rule requiring H. C. Girrard to pay cost.

S. P. Fisher and C. S. Hillyard were admitted to practice in this court.

U. S. vs. Theo. J. Johnson; a case involving the correctness of the survey of the military road in Alexandria county; plea in abatement filed and overruled and time given defendant in which to file answer.

How Is Your Watch Running?

Watch Repairing always has been a hobby of ours, to do the Best Work possible.

Is it always fast or slow? Never quite on time? Perhaps the watch is capable of very accurate running, but it is not in perfect order. You know the tiny mechanism of a watch absolutely demands that each of the dozens of little parts—springs, wheels, jewels, etc.—be just right, or good timing is out of the question.

FINANCIAL.

An investment you wish to make, rest assured the safest investment you can possibly make is to deposit your money in the Savings Department of this corporation where it will earn 3 per cent. interest compounded twice a year. Your principal will then be always at your command and cannot depreciate in value. You can start an account with this corporation for $1.00 or upwards. If you have other investments in view isn't it advisable to have your MONEY MAKING MONEY while you are deciding this matter. There's many a $1 or $5 bill spent unnecessarily because it is carried in the pocket, when a savings account would have discouraged or prevented the expenditure. A bank account is not only a convenience, but a great encourager of economy, so why not commence right and open an account with us today. We invite you to do so and promise courteous and liberal treatment consistent with sound banking methods.

Costly Jar of the Subway.

The tuppenny tube, London's subway, once set fire to a house in a manner so extraordinary as to merit attention. In a mansion beneath which runs the subterranean railway one of the bedroom fireplaces was fitted with a blower—a sheet of iron inside the grate which can be raised or lowered to regulate the draft. The blower rested on a series of iron notches. One afternoon a servant kindled a fire in the grate and when it was well alight raised the blower, so that the coal would burn but slowly, and so left it while she went downstairs. Presently, deep in the clay beneath the foundations of the house, a train rushed along. The vibrations from its passing were sufficient to jar the blower from the notches on which the servant had left it. It dropped down. The draft increased; the fire raged madly. The flames were enough to set the chimney on fire, burning soot set the water tank on the roof alight, and there resulted a considerable conflagration.—Pittsburg Post.

A Girl and a Snake.

It is a matter of fact that men have greater fear of serpents than have women. During a visit to friends in the country I was crossing a stretch of meadow in the company of my hostess' daughter, a sprightly girl of seventeen, when a black snake crossed the path ten feet in front of us. I caught my companion by the sleeve, but she wrenched herself loose, gathered her skirts about her knees, gave a running jump and landed squarely upon the back of the reptile. His snakeship thrashed the grass and the girl's ankles with equal futility. As soon as she could disengage one foot she planted it upon the serpent's head. In the absence of club or stones I was compelled to stand and witness a scene that to me was terrifying, but to the girl furnished supreme enjoyment. Years afterward when I read Haggard's description of Jess' fight with the kangaroo I understood the kind of entertainment that my young companion had provided for me.—Brooklyn Eagle.

There's a Hare In the Moon.

Equally famous with the man in the moon and the woman in the moon is the hare in the moon, says Garrett P. Serviss in his "Astronomy With the Naked Eye." The original is a Buddhist legend. The god Sakkria, disguised as a Brahman, pretended to be starving and went to the animals for help. The monkey got him a bunch of mangoes; the coot picked up a fisherman's neglected string for him; the fox stole him a pot of milk. At last the god approached the hare. "I have nothing but grass," said the hare, "and you can't eat that." "But your flesh is good," suggested the pretended Brahman. The hare assented. "Then," said the Brahman, "I'll kindle a fire at the foot of this rock, and you jump off into it. That'll save me the trouble of killing you." The hare assented again, but as he leaped from the rock the god caught him in his arms and then drew his figure in the moon as a perpetual reminder of the excellence of self sacrifice.

Cerebral Embolism.

Cerebral embolism, or the occlusion or plugging of an artery in the brain, causes sudden death. Growths or vegetations form on the valves of the heart. While attached they are harmless, but the instant one, large or small, becomes loosened and enters the rapid arterial current a very perilous condition obtains. The embolus, or plug, enters a vessel that becomes narrower and narrower and at last it is arrested and occludes or plugs the artery, thereby cutting off the blood supply. The force of the blood current back of the embolus keeps it at the seat of arrest. In brain cases the middle cerebral artery, at the base of the brain, is affected. Once lodged unconsciousness follows and soon death. Some of the symptoms resemble those of a true cerebral hemorrhage or apoplexy.—New York Herald.

A Quaint English Ceremony.

On the last day of each October the city solicitor of London, with an assistant, attends upon the royal remembrancer, when by proclamation "the tenants and occupiers of a piece of waste ground called the moors, in the county of Salop," are commanded to "come forth and do your service upon pain and peril that shall fall thereon." The solicitor chops in halves two fagots, one with a hatchet and the other with a billhook. Afterward comes the summons to the tenants, etc., of "a certain tenement with a forge" in the Strand and the payment of six horseshoes, with sixty-one shoe nails, by the solicitor. This forge has long ceased to be, and the same shoes and nails are used year after year, the shoes being at least two centuries old.

Spell This.

Some of you who think you are well up in spelling just try to spell the words in this little sentence:

"It is agreeable to witness the unparalleled ecstasy of two harassed peddlers endeavoring to gauge the symmetry of two peeled pears."

Read it over to your friends and see how many of them can spell every word correctly. The sentence contains some of the real puzzlers of the spelling book.

Too Good a Chance to Miss.

He (indignantly)—They have put us in a back pew this morning. Why, I wonder? She (calmly)—They probably noticed that I wore a dowdy hat and that I shouldn't care to have it seen!

There is a saying that people are as "homely as a mud fence." Did any one ever see a mud fence or know if there is such a thing?—Atchison Globe.
